Roll Call Present: Earl McCoy, Clifford Mueller, Chuck West, and Bonita Hutcheson. Absent: Dick Lynch. Also present Roger Rowland.

Approval of the minutes A motion was made by Earl McCoy to approve the minutes of November 16, 1995 as presented. Seconded by Cliff Mueller and carried.

Treasurer's Report The Treasurer, Chuck West, reported in savings, we have $5,040.47 and in the checking account $162.77. He received a donation from the Sheridan Celebrates Committee in the amount of $1,500.00 for 1995.

Death Mabel Hornbuckle, long time resident of Sheridan, passed away at the age of 101 years.

Non Profit Status We need a report completed on the non-profit status of this organization. Cliff thought that he gave it to Bonita, but must still have it at home. He will try to get it completed.

Discussion The program for Bear Creek Village done by Earl McCoy and Bonita Hutcheson was warmly received. Not to many were in attendance. The slide program will be kept complete so that we can use this form rather than the video. It brings more response.

The friends of Historic Fort Logan have applied for a small grant for curriculum planning for their program. Perhaps it could be 'borrowed' and tailored for our use.

Dues were paid by Roger Rowland, and Earl McCoy. Membership cards were prepared. A donation of $10.00 was given to us by Roger.

Adjournment The meeting was adjourned at 8:45 p.m.
